

FY2015

Impact Report

Oklahoma Arts Council

Background

In 1965, Governor Henry Bellmon created the Oklahoma Arts Council in response to a national movement to make arts and culture available to communities across America. The Council's creation allowed the state to receive matching grants from the newly formed National Endowment for the Arts (NEA).

Prior to the NEA and Oklahoma Arts Council's creation, most Americans had to travel to large metropolitan or coastal areas for the arts. Today, Council grants benefit every county in Oklahoma.

In addition to grants, the Council works to build Oklahoma's arts and cultural infrastructure through development programs that benefit artists, organizations, schools, and communities.

During 2015, the Oklahoma Arts Council is celebrating 50 years of serving the people of our state, commemorating its central role in fostering what is today a robust and vibrant arts and cultural industry.

Why the Arts?

Oklahoma Arts Council funding ensures communities and schools statewide access to the benefits the arts provide:

- Impacts the economy
- Enriches quality-of-life
- Attracts a creative workforce
- Preserves our history
- Promotes community and economic development
- Inspires academic excellence

The Value of the Public Dollar

- $314.8 million impact*
- $29 million in state and local tax revenues*

According to The Economic Impact of Nonprofit Arts and Culture Organizations in Oklahoma, which was released in 2010, nonprofit arts and cultural organizations have a $314.8 million impact on the state's economy. This economic impact in our state is more than the economic footprint of the Tulsa Port of Catoosa which pumps $300 million dollars into our state. The study showed the industry supports more than 10,000 full-time equivalent jobs, and generates over $29 million in state and local government revenues.

For Communities

From festivals in rural Oklahoma that bring thousands of tourists to town and community theaters that enliven historic main streets along Route 66, to nationally recognized ballets and philharmonics that add cultural vibrancy to our metro areas, Council grants have an impact on communities of all sizes statewide.

For Schools

Our grants for schools unlock students' creative potential, animate Oklahoma history through Capitol art field trips, and engage students through performances and workshops. The arts are a robust tool through which the Council strengthens education and cultivates Oklahoma's creative workforce.

a Robust Cultural Infrastructure through Programs

As the state arts agency, the Council is in a unique position to serve a vital statewide industry by building Oklahoma's cultural infrastructure. Our programs are generating industry leadership, equipping individuals and organizations, and growing cultural districts in communities across the state.

Cultural District Initiative

The Oklahoma Cultural District Initiative assists communities in identifying and leveraging local arts and cultural resources for economic development. Through matching grants, project oversight, and professional consultations, plans are developed and executed through a collaboration of community stakeholders.

Leadership Arts

The Leadership Arts program provides leadership training for 30 individuals from throughout the state each year. During four two-day sessions, participants learn the arts' role in strengthening the economy, improving education, and enhancing quality-of-life. Since 2008, the program has equipped 240 leaders from 80 communities. Graduates are actively using their Leadership Arts training to impact Ada, Alva, Guthrie, Miami, Oklahoma City, Tahlequah, Woodward, and other communities statewide.

Oklahoma Arts Conference

Our statewide professional development conference brings together hundreds of professionals working in the arts and cultural industry for two days of sessions, panels, networking, and events. National and local experts present on topics including fundraising, board management, marketing, community development, and education.

Oklahoma's New and Emerging Arts Leaders Network (ONEAL)

ONEAL is a free statewide network for individuals age 35 and younger or those with less than five years of experience in the arts. ONEAL provides peer support, mentorship, and resources for the next wave of arts leadership in Oklahoma. The network has over 900 members statewide.

Research consistently shows arts education's ability to improve a student's overall academic performance. Education programs offered by the Council provide critical resources for meeting the needs of students and teachers in today's classroom and in community learning settings.

Arts in Alternative Education

High-quality arts education is made available to students at alternative education sites statewide through the Arts in Alternative Education grant program. Made possible by funding from the Oklahoma State Department of Education, the program provides grants of up to $5,000 for hands-on arts education that assesses student learning.

Capitol Art Travel Subsidies

Our field trip program reimburses schools statewide for travel costs to bring students to the state Capitol where they are immersed in Oklahoma history depicted in the Capitol artwork. This is a once-in-a-lifetime experience for many students.

Organizational Support

Council funding allows Oklahoma's largest arts organizations to provide arts education programs to schools statewide. Lyric Theatre, Tulsa Ballet, and the Oklahoma City Philharmonic are examples of organizations that rely on our support to reach thousands of students each year.

Performing Arts Corps

Elementary schools statewide can bring in one of our six Performing Arts Corps artists for a day of workshops, a performance, and arts integration curriculum. Schools provide a minimal cash match for the program.

Small Grant Support for Schools

Schools can apply for matching grants of up to $2500, twice per year, to support arts education programming such as artist-in-residencies. Programs must assess learning.

Our History and Cultural Heritage

In addition to supporting the museums and institutions that are stewards of our history and culture, Council staff manages the art in the public spaces of the state Capitol. Oklahoma's Capitol is unique among U.S. state capitols for the amount of artwork adorning its hallways and rotunda and beautifying its grounds. Each year, thousands of people visit the Capitol to view the vast collection of artwork.

Capitol Art Collection

More than 100 sculptures, murals, and paintings have a permanent home in the state Capitol. In addition to enriching a historic civic space, the collection provides visitors and students an engaging way to learn about Oklahoma history through the events, people, and land depicted in the works.

State Art Collection

This collection of 211 works by notable Oklahoma artists is housed in the Betty Price Gallery. The collection is a visual anthology of the history of artistic expression in Oklahoma. Works within the collection reflect the history and diversity comprising Oklahoma's cultural fabric. The Council cultivates the collection by continuing to acquire donated works.

Capitol Galleries

Four art galleries in the Capitol showcase works by Oklahoma artists: The East Gallery, North Gallery, and Governor's Gallery rotate exhibitions every 60 days for a total of 18 exhibitions each year. The Betty Price Gallery is a museum-quality gallery housing the State Art Collection.
