

Community Resource Survey

Use the following template to survey and record nearby community resources and consider how the various organizations can promote and sustain creative aging programming for older adults.

Identify any of the following organizations in your community or service area:

- Arts centers and organizations
- State and local councils
- Community and senior centers
- Faith-based organizations
- Libraries and library foundations
- Business and merchant associations
- Local government and civic groups
- Schools and school-based programs
- Health and human service agencies

Identify the following resources and terms when surveying organizations:

- Venues: Spaces to run the program or showcase the culminating event.
- Potential audiences: Organizations that serve your targeted population.
- Promotional partners: Organizations that already broadcast to older adults.
- Funding: Connect with organizations that can help tap into new funding streams.
- Teaching artists: Organizations that already contract, serve, or otherwise involve skilled arts instructors working with older adults in community.
- Collaborative programming: Organizations with built-in audiences and programs, but have gaps in their offerings.
- Program overlap: Do any of these organizations offer programming for older adults? If so, is it instructional arts programming?
