

Rural Arts Opportunity Grant Program Guidelines

Application Deadline: Applications are accepted on a rolling basis. Applications may be submitted at any time as long as the project has not ended.

To ensure all Oklahomans have access to the arts, Rural Arts Opportunity Grants are available to organizations in select rural counties. The grant program represents a strategic investment by the Oklahoma Arts Council to advance state goals related to economic development, education, and quality of life. Grants are available to support capacity building and professional development activities, and learning-based or audience-based arts programs. This is a program developed through allocated funds from the Oklahoma State Legislature to leverage resources for geographically isolated areas of our state that have limited access to arts and cultural activities.

Program Goals

- Support arts programming and opportunities for more Oklahomans
 - This grant opportunity is only open for organizations in the Rural Opportunity Counties listed below
- Establish arts infrastructure in rural and remote areas

Rural Opportunity Counties

Organizations in the counties below are eligible for this funding opportunity. Counties were identified through an analysis of Oklahoma Arts Council funding history and award distribution, with a special focus on supporting historically underfunded areas.

What Types of Projects Can Be Supported?

Grants can support projects associated with capacity building/professional development, learning-based, or audience-based arts programs. Projects can be new or ongoing but cannot end before the submission of an application. Examples of projects include:

Capacity Building and Professional Development

- Programs that increase an organization's or community's capacity to provide arts experiences and programming, to include but not limited to:
 - Arts-focused organizational planning, board development and succession planning, audience development or marketing, organization and program evaluation, program and budget evaluation, strategic planning, volunteer management, etc.

Learning-Based Arts Programs

- Classes and workshops (frequency and duration may vary; focus should be on meaningful hands-on learning)
- Online/virtual learning-based arts programs

Audience-Based Arts Programs

- Performances
- Exhibitions
- Festivals
- Online/virtual audience-based arts programs

Artistic Disciplines: The Oklahoma Arts Council uses artistic quality as one of its review criteria for grants. Artistic disciplines include, but are not limited to, music, dance, folk/traditional arts, literary arts, media arts, theatre, and visual arts. If you have questions about the eligibility of your project, please contact an Oklahoma Arts Council program director.

What Expenses Are Allowable?

Allowable Expenses:

- Artistic and administrative payroll expenses for arts-related programming and administration, such as salaries, benefits, and contracts
- Facility and operational expenses such as administrative costs, rent, mortgage, utilities, security, building maintenance, cleaning or sanitation, etc. directly related to arts programming and administration
- Consulting, planning, and evaluation contracts to support arts capacity building
- Arts program-related expenses such as marketing, consumable supplies, rental fees, etc.

Unallowable Expenses: Funds cannot be used to support loss of revenue, debt repayment, subgranting, duties or expenses related to fundraising and/or lobbying, capital expenditures and/or building improvements, permanent art installations, activities for which college credit is given, activities or expenses that may advance or inhibit any religious belief, events that are not open to the public, cash prizes or awards, and hospitality expenses (i.e., food, drink, receptions, parties, galas).

Funding Priorities

The Oklahoma Arts Council has the following priorities for investment:

1. Organizations that are located in and/or primarily serve geographically isolated and/or socioeconomically underresourced communities
2. Organizations that represent, serve, and/or have missions that focus on arts access to culturally diverse communities
3. Organizations with programming with a focus on underrepresented and/or underresourced communities or populations and/or market their programs to encourage inclusion of diverse populations

Frequently Asked Questions

Q. My organization is already receiving funding through another Oklahoma Arts Council grant program. Can I apply for a Rural Arts Opportunity Grant?

A. Yes. If your organization's primary address (registered with the IRS and State of Oklahoma) is in one of the identified counties and is selected to receive Rural Arts Opportunity Grant funding, you will need to provide a separate 1:1 match (100%) for the award, none of which may not come from another Oklahoma Arts Council grant award or federal funds. Half of the match (50%) may be in-kind support.

Q. What types of artistic disciplines can be supported?

A. The Oklahoma Arts Council uses artistic quality as one of its review criteria for grants. Artistic disciplines include, but are not limited to, music, theatre, dance, literary arts, media arts, and visual arts. If you have questions about the eligibility of your project, please contact an Oklahoma Arts Council program director.

Q. Can these grant funds support a memorial sculpture, mural, or other permanent artwork?

A. Unfortunately, no. Rural Arts Opportunity Grants cannot be used to support capital improvements/expenses including the creation of permanent artwork or the improvement of buildings/properties.

Q. We are offering free tickets to the community for a program/field trip we've already planned. Is this project eligible for funding?

A. Unfortunately, no. While discounted tickets may help broaden access, Rural Arts Opportunity Grants can only be used for projects that are intentionally designed for capacity building/professional development, learning-based, or audience-based arts programs. For more information, see the What Types of Projects Can Be Supported? section above.
